Public Comments

Rebecca Ledezma asked about the status of the officers involved in the death of her husband. Chairwoman Roberts said she had learned that they were back on duty.

Vivian and Turner Stancil, pastors with CIONO (Christian Intercessors of the Nations Organization), asked that the Commission partner with CIONO so that they can get reduced or no fees when using City facilities. Commissioner Johnson said he is impressed by the amount of service CIONO provides to the community and feels it is a worthy cause to partner with CIONO.

Bill Howe commended the Commission for the 2011 Annual Report, saying that the report is “outstanding,” and the best report published by the Commission so far.

Removal of Item from CPRC Website

Discussion and action, if any, on removing "Report by Joseph Brann & Associates" from the CPRC website.

Commissioner Johnson said he didn't believe it should be removed entirely, but that it should be archived online.

Commissioner Rotker said his biggest concern is that the report is not dated; there is no creation date or the date it was submitted to the Commission. He said a cover letter needs to be drafted that gives dates and some history regarding the report's creation or it should be removed.

Bill Howe said the City paid Mr. Brann a lot of money for the report. He recommended drafting the cover letter and keeping the report online.

As Commissioner Santore had asked that this be agendaized, Chairwoman Roberts tabled action on the item as Commissioner Santore was not present to participate in the discussion.

Commissioner Adams agreed that the report should remain online, but that a cover letter be drafted for the report.

Mr. Hauptmann said Commissioner Santore had spoken to him about the report, saying that his main concern was that the report was not dated.

Staff Report

Mr. Hauptmann advised that Mike Bumcrot, the Commission's independent investigator, had submitted his final report on the Millon OID and that it would be made available to commissioners.

Commission Member Comments

Pursuant to Government Code Section 54954.2, Commission members may use this time to make brief announcements or a brief report on their own activities.

Commissioner Rotker said he helped staff the table at the Riverside Neighborhood Conference. He said there was a good turnout, but he didn't like sharing the table with another exhibitor.

Items for Future Commission Consideration

Commissioner Adams asked how the Commission was going to address the sponsoring of community groups. Chairwoman Roberts said Mr. Hauptmann could research the topic and that the item could be agendaized for discussion at the next meeting.

Adjournment

The Commission adjourned at 6:15 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

PHOEBE SHERRON
Sr. Office Specialist
